

Privacy Policy

This document "Privacy Policy" sets forth the rules for the use of Internet users' data collected through the Website.

1. Processed Data

1.1. We do not collect your personal data through the Website.

1.2. All data collected on the Website is provided and received in anonymized form.

1.3. Anonymized data includes the following information that does not allow for your identification:

1.3.1. Information you provide about yourself voluntarily using online forms and modules of the Website, including name, phone number, and/or email address.

1.3.2. Data transmitted in anonymized form automatically depending on the settings of the software you use.

1.4. The Administration has the right to set requirements for the composition of anonymized user data collected through the Website.

1.5. If certain information is not marked as mandatory, its provision or disclosure is made at the discretion of the User. At the same time, you give informed consent to the access of an unlimited number of persons to such data. The specified data becomes publicly available from the moment it is provided and/or disclosed in another form.

1.6. The Administration does not verify the accuracy of the data provided or the availability of the User's necessary consent for its processing in accordance with this Policy, assuming that the User acts in good faith, with due care, and makes every effort to keep such information up to date and to obtain all necessary consents for its use.

1.7. You understand and accept the possibility of using third-party software on the Website, as a result of which such parties may receive and transmit the data specified in Clause 1.3 in anonymized form.

Example! Such third-party software includes web analytics systems like Google Analytics.

1.8. The composition and conditions for the collection of anonymized data through third-party software are determined directly by their rights holders and may include:

- Browser data (type, version, cookies);

- Device data and its location;
- Operating system data (type, version, screen resolution);
- Request data (time, referral source, IP address).

1.9. The Administration is not responsible for the manner in which third parties use the User's anonymized data.

2. Purposes of Data Processing

2.1. The Administration uses the data for the following purposes:

- 2.1.1. Processing incoming requests and communicating with the User;
- 2.1.2. Providing informational services, including sending advertising and informational materials;
- 2.1.3. Conducting marketing, statistical, and other research;
- 2.1.4. Targeting advertising materials on the Website.

3. Data Protection Requirements

3.1. The Administration stores data and ensures its protection against unauthorized access and distribution in accordance with internal rules and regulations.

3.2. The collected data remains confidential, except in cases where it has been made publicly available by the User, as well as when the technologies and third-party software used on the Website, or the settings of the User's software, provide for open data exchange with such parties and/or other participants and Internet users.

3.3. In order to improve service quality, the Administration may store log files of actions performed by the User while using the Website for a period of one (1) year.

4. Data Transfer

4.1. The Administration has the right to transfer data to third parties in the following cases:

- The User has given consent to such actions, including in cases where the User has applied software settings that do not restrict the provision of certain information;
- The transfer is necessary within the framework of the User's use of the Website's functionality;
- The transfer is required in accordance with the purposes of data processing;

- In connection with the transfer of the Website into ownership, use, or possession of such a third party;
- At the request of a court or other authorized state authority in accordance with the procedure established by law;
- To protect the rights and legitimate interests of the Administration in connection with violations committed by the User.

5. Changes to the Privacy Policy

5.1. This Policy may be amended or terminated by the Administration unilaterally without prior notice to the User. The new version of the Policy enters into force from the moment it is posted on the Website, unless otherwise provided by the new version of the Policy.

5.2. The current version of the Policy is available on the Website at its Internet address.

The current version of the Policy is dated July 25, 2025.
